

Inner Circle

All Stars Martial Arts Academy

The Purpose of The Inner Circle

Is to promote the health, wellbeing, and quality of life of individual members, their families, and the All Stars Martial Arts Academy in Australasia through the practice of the schools systems / syllabus of Freestyle Goju Karate Do & Muay Thai Kickboxing. It will have the function of maintaining the longevity / survival of the school and to maintain the structures and systems in place, do not change and that the school underlying principles and direction is followed as per Kancho Rod's wishes. The Inner Circle will have no power over the Council but can have an association / affiliation / networking connection. (Note: The inner circle will not have any power over the direction of the All Stars Group of Company's only the Martial Arts side of the business).

Our Vision:

The circle is made up of martial arts practitioners from All Stars Martial Arts Academy club instructors past and present who are united by their passion and desire to develop and grow the way of All Stars Martial Arts.

17th July Inner Circle appointments

Steeve Mackay (President)

Teresa Caruso (Vice President)

Marina Gvozdetsky (Secretary)

Members as of the 17th July

Thierry Moran, Graeme Johnston, John Di Losa, Rhonda Nooroa, Steven Castle, Charles Parry, Chris Kinman, Shane Lacy, Daniel Zrajko, Sonya Willets, John Moumas, Elie Laz, Rod Catterall. The position is a privilege and is an honour to be apart of.

(If your name is not here please ask Kancho Rod).

Successor to Kancho

Kancho Rod Catterall will appoint a successor to be head of the school. Any successor appointed by the Kancho should,

- be one of the most senior and experienced teachers,
- be an outstanding example of someone who has the budo spirit at heart,
- have the support of the seniors of the school and the council.

If the Kancho does not appoint a successor before his position becomes vacant then a successor will be appointed by the simple majority decision of the schools inner circle.