

Staff Safety Workshop

Half Day Workshop Thursday 24 June, 2010

Workshop is aimed at staff who work with clients where there may be a risk of aggression. This could include reception staff, nursing staff, carers, home and community care staff, among others.

In this workshops the following will be covered: assessing risk and minimising risk; legal issues, managing your own feelings in difficult circumstances and evasive defence techniques. Along with learning important skills to keep themselves and clients safe at work, participants will learn a number of simple techniques for escaping from different grips and grabs with an emphasis on techniques that do not induce pain.

The workshop will be run by Rod Catterall who has provided training on staff safety in the disability, health, welfare and justice sectors over the last 15 years.
